Pre War Gibson MASTERTONE Seminar

Saturday, September 24th, 2011- Durham, NC

If you haven't yet been able to attend a Jim Mills Prewar Gibson Mastertone Seminar, don't miss this one! This is a rare opportunity to experience for yourself what all the talk is about! Jim Mills is a six-time Grammy Award Winner and IBMA Banjo Player of the year. This will be a one day only "hands on" experience, held in Jim's own "Banjo Showroom" where he houses the largest personally owned collection of Original Pre War Flathead Five-String Mastertones ever assembled. You will get the rare opportunity to see, discuss, and experience, touch, hold, and even play, some of the rarest banjos in existence, including the "Mack Crow Gold Plated RB-75", the "Snuffy Jenkins RB-4", the "Posie Roach RB-75", the "Bill Worrell RB-75" and many more, all of which are featured in Jim's popular new book "Gibson MASTERTONE Flathead 5-String Banjos of the 1930's and 1940's." You will also see one of the most fascinating collections of banjo memorabilia including rare parts, original catalogs, photographs and even items from the Flatt and Scruggs era that helped make bluegrass what it is today!

This will be a truly unique and exciting experience for any banjo enthusiast as Jim opens up his collection to the public and spends the day sharing the history of these fascinating instruments with you! Seating will be strictly limited, so please reserve your spot today!
