Don't miss the opportunity to study with both of these masterful instructors

Bill Evans The author of Banjo For Dummies, Bill has taught at almost every major banjo and bluegrass camp and workshop in the world. andl has spent a lifetime learning from direct and extensive one-on-one interaction with his own mentors: Sonny Osborne, J. D. Crowe, Alan Munde, Tony Trischka, Bill Emerson and Bill Keith. He has shared what he's learned along the way through his Off The Record and brand new All Strings Considered columns in Banjo Newsletter magazine and in four critically acclaimed DVD projects for AcuTab Publications. His students include Chris Pandolfi (The Infamous Stringdusters), Greg Liszt (Crooked Still) and Wes Corbett (Joy Kills Sorrow).

Richie Dotson is a successful, full-time Banjo teacher as well as a world famous banjo restoration expert and builder. Richie possesses an encyclopedic knowledge of the banjo fingerboard and has over 25 years of professional teaching experience. His earthy, hands-on, and clear approach to teaching banjo will leave you with a firmer understanding of your instrument's fingerboard as well as the mechanics of the Bluegrass Style of playing. His natural ability to render seemingly complicated subjects into easy to understand language will open many doors for you on your banjo.

The Workshop is only $100.00 per person!

Subjects to be covered will be, but are not necessarily restricted to: Scruggs/Crowe Right Hand Essentials, Up and Down the Neck Backup, Slow Song Lead and Backup, Melodic and Single String Introduction, Music Theory and Capo Use, Surviving a Bluegrass Jam Session, Playing in C, D and F and Getting to know your fingerboard with plenty of question and answer time!
